Tuna Fish & Peanut Butter Classic Conversations

Friday, January 22, 2010

Laramie County Library Cottonwood Room • 12:00 pm–1:00 pm

This informal and informative hour of conversation is free and open to everyone. Attendees will have the opportunity to learn more about the music being featured at the following evening's concert and have their questions answered. Guest artist, violinist Gareth Johnson, will make an appearance and give a little information about himself. We encourage you to bring your lunch and a friend to this event. The traditional Classic Conversations will continue to take place at the Civic Center one hour prior to each concert.

Four Seasons

January 23 • 7:30 PM

Duke Ellington • The River
Aaron Copland • Appalachian Spring
Antonio Vivaldi • The Four Seasons

The Four Seasons might just be the most popular and beloved pieces of all classical music. Imagine hearing all four of these great concertos in one concert. Now imagine them played by a young dynamo with sensational stage presence and charisma. That's Gareth Johnson. His intensity and pure joy in music-making will knock you over. Appalachian Spring is another audience favorite, portraying the spirit of America in a moving way.

We all know Duke Ellington's jazz, but you may be surprised and delighted to hear his orchestral music as the CSO performs a collection of wonderful and original music Ellington wrote for a ballet in 1970.

Vivaldi's Four Seasons Scarf by Lazou

The CSO has a limited number of these beautiful scarves for sale at the Four Seasons concert performance on January 23. This 10"x 60" double-printed silk twill scarf features the four violin concertos from Vivaldi's manuscript score. It is available in sand, black & white, or burgundy (pictured above). It retails for $60, but you can purchase one from the CSO for only $30.

Art in Music

This year, artistic expressions of the January concert repertoire will be on display beginning January 21 at the Cheyenne Civic Center. The artists are Cheyenne 8th through 12th grade art students, and awards will be presented to the best works at the January 23rd concert. Please join us in support of our young artists and vote on your favorite piece of art for the People's Choice award.
