SEASON

LETTER FROM THE MAESTRO

Welcome to Cheyenne Symphony Orchestra's 2023/24 concert season...The Universe Awaits!

As reflected in the season title, this year's theme draws its inspiration from outer space. Some of the programs simply allude to space, such as Mahler's "Titan", and others are directly inspired by space, like Holst's The Planets.

In addition to Mahler & Holst, other highlights this season include Mozart's "Jupiter" Symphony, Debussy's Clair de lune, Nielsen's Helios Overture, Mason Bates' Mothership, Blake Tyson's Ceiling Full of Stars for percussion ensemble, Copland's Quiet City performed with projections of the night sky. Schubert's Fifth Symphony, Wagner's Flying Dutchman Overture, Benjamin Britten's Four Sea Interludes from his opera Peter Grimes, Florence Price's Adoration, and Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 2.

Outstanding soloists will be featured throughout the season, including pianist Adam Zukiewicz, the Heartland Marimba Quartet, soprano Aundi Marie Moore, Composer Derek Jenkins, CSO principal cellist Beth Vanderborgh, CSO principal trumpet Derek McDonald, CSO principal oboe Gina Johnson, and Cheyenne native Sarah Hartmann, actor/director.

This season we'll be performing favorites of both families and long-time patrons with our annual Movie Music Matinee and beloved Holiday Magic concert, featuring the All-City Children's Choir, En Avant Dance Studio, Cheyenne Chamber Singers, and guest conductor Scott O'Neil!

Plus, we also welcome back a true Wyoming event, Baroque in the Barn, at the picturesque Wyoming Hereford Ranch as well as two unique Hausmusik recitals. Plus, Save The Date for Symphony at Sunset June 9, 2024! This FREE event is a wonderful opportunity to showcase the talents of the orchestra to our community accompanied by a lovely Wyoming sunset in Lions Park!

As always, each performance of the Cheyenne Symphony Orchestra is designed to inspire and move you, to refresh your spirit and to bring you joy. We hope this season lifts you up as CSO "lifts off" to a musical universe awaiting us ALL!

On behalf of the musicians, staff, and Board of Directors, thank you for your support of the Cheyenne Symphony Orchestra!

Musically yours,

Dr. William Intriligator
Music Director & Conductor
