IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

The CSO mailed season tickets out on August 30th. We are aware that some of our subscribers have not received their tickets. If you are a season subscriber and have not yet received your tickets, please call our office at 307-778-8561 and notify us. We will reprint your tickets and have them waiting for you at the Will Call window of the Cheyenne Civic Center Box Office the night of the September 28th concert. We are sorry if this has caused any inconvenience.

Introducing Elizabeth McGuire

The CSO would like you to join us in welcoming its latest addition to the staff, Executive Director Elizabeth McGuire. Elizabeth comes to us from Tuscaloosa, AL where she served as Executive Director of the Tuscaloosa Symphony. Her husband, John, is horn professor at CSU, and they have a five year old son, Ian. Please look for Elizabeth at our opening night concert, Brilliant Beginnings, and introduce yourself. She is looking forward to meeting you!

Pictured left: Elizabeth is being interviewed by Wyoming Tribune Eagle reporter James Chilton. Watch for this article to learn more about our new Executive Director.

Where's Haydn Hidin'?

This diminutive composer has escaped the building. We know he's seeking refuge with one of our advertisers or corporate sponsors. We are offering a 2 ticket reward to anyone who returns him to us. If you find him, please bring him home to the CSO office at 1904 Thomes Avenue between Monday and Thursday the week of the concert. Office hours are 9am–5pm.

For hints as to where Haydn is hidin', please go to our Facebook page using the URL below and LIKE us. Then tell all your friends and family to do the same. We miss our little man and hope for his safe return.
