

Tuna Fish & Peanut Butter Classic Conversations

Friday, February 21, 2014

Laramie County Library Cottonwood Room • 12:00 PM–1:00 PM

This informal and informative hour of conversation is free and open to everyone. Attendees will have the opportunity to learn more about the music being featured at the following evening's concert and have their questions answered. Guest artist, oboist Gina Johnson, will join Maestro Intriligator, play a few selections from the Strauss oboe concerto, and tell us a little about herself. We encourage you to bring your lunch and a friend to this event. The traditional Classic Conversations will take place at the Civic Center one hour prior to the concert.

Where's Haydn Hidin'?

We can't seem to keep Haydn contained. We're not sure what the little diva's problem is, and lately he's taken to disguising himself. Typically, he seeks refuge with one of our advertisers or corporate sponsors. We are offering a 2 ticket reward to anyone who returns him to us. If you find him, please bring him home to the CSO office at 1904 Thomes Ave. between Monday and Friday the week of the concert. Office hours are 9am–5pm.

For hints as to where Haydn is hidin', please go to our Facebook page using the URL below and LIKE us. Then tell all your friends and family to do the same. We miss our little man and hope for his safe return.

Amadeus & Then Some

Saturday, February 22, 2014

Cheyenne Civic Center • 7:30 PM

There is no question which composer—Mozart or Salieri—was the genius and which composer was the very good, second-rate composer; but Salieri was not a hack. You will delight in his short lively Sinfonia. But the contrast, heard on this single program, is evident as you prepare yourself for the sublime musical bliss of Mozart's Symphony No. 39 and Don Giovanni overture. CSO Principal Oboist Gina Johnson steps into the spotlight to perform Strauss' Oboe concerto, a beautifully-crafted work with obvious inspiration from Mozart.

Rach N Nakamatsu

April 26 • Cheyenne Civic Center

Jon Nakamatsu returns to perform one of the greatest piano concertos, Rachmaninoff's Third. Made famous from the movie Shine, this concerto is grand, romantic, and fiendishly difficult for the soloist. Philadelphia-based Pulitzer-prize winning composer Jennifer Higdon is one of our greatest living American composers. We feature her very short work, Machine, as a concert opener, before settling into the nostalgia and romanticism of Brahms' rarely heard Third Symphony.

Jon will also perform the evening prior at the home of Sloan and Anna Marie Hales. Limited seating is available so call for your tickets before they sell out. Tickets are $45/Adults and $23/Students.

REMINDER TO SEASON TICKET HOLDERS

Remember! If you cannot attend a concert, you can donate your tickets back to the CSO and we will send you a tax deductible donation receipt. Deadline for doing this is 4pm the day before the concert. We regret we cannot accommodate these requests on the day of the concert.
