2025-2026
SEASON

LETTER FROM THE MAESTRO

Welcome to the 2025–2026 concert season of the Cheyenne Symphony Orchestra!

With our country nearing its 250th anniversary on July 4, 2026, we decided to celebrate this momentous occasion by programming a Masterpiece Series devoted to American composers.

Many of your favorites are here, like Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue, Grofé's Grand Canyon Suite, Copland's Appalachian Spring and Clarinet Concerto, Bernstein's West Side Story and his Overture and "Glitter and Be Gay" from Candide. We will also perform other masterpieces like Barber's Knoxville, Summer of 1915, Ives' Second Symphony, Gould's Symphonette No. 2, Zwilich's Celebration, and the Florence Price Piano Concerto in One Movement.

Contemporary composers are represented, too, with exciting, fresh, and beautiful music by Lalo Schiffrin, Jesse Montgomery, Quinn Mason, Rhiannon Giddens, Michael Abels, and our new Composer-in-Residence Jeff Lippencott.

Jeff Lippencott's music will be sprinkled throughout the season on Masterpiece programs, our Movie Music Matinee, and even our Musical Storytime. He has written a new commission for us in honor of our country's 250th entitled American Patriot Hymn, which we will perform in April and July, and which will also be part of a new album of Lippencott's music that the CSO is recording in partnership with star cellist Zuill Bailey, who will begin a stint as our "Myra Montfort Artist-in-Residence."

Zuill Bailey will perform the Lippencott cello concerto, Pasturelands, as well as our Baroque in the Barn concert. Other great guest artists include soprano Christie Conover, Chicago Symphony tubist Gene Pokorny, and star pianist Michelle Cann. In addition, our own Principal Clarinet Kellan Toohey will be featured in Copland's concerto.

We will also present our Holiday Magic concert—a favorite event for many in this community—with the orchestra again being joined by the Cheyenne Chamber Singers, the Cheyenne All-City Children's Choir, and the En Avant Dance Studio. Our Movie Music Matinee always delights young and old, and kids come in costume and get to conduct the CSO! Our Hausmusik concerts will feature soprano Christie Conover and pianist Michelle Cann.

So, you can see, with an all-American season, a new album recording, a Composer-in-Residence, an Artist-in-Residence, and a great line up of guests, this will be one heck of a season!

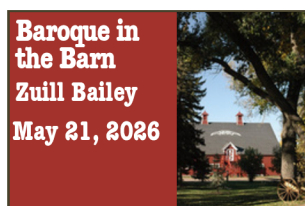

The programs on the following pages will surely delight and inspire you! So please join us for some of the best nights out in Cheyenne! With your Cheyenne Symphony Orchestra! Thank you!

Musically yours,

Dr. William Intriligator
Music Director & Conductor
